THE LATE DANIEL WALDO

The remains of the old pioneer Daniel Waldo who died on Monday last at Salem, were borne to their last resting place by his old friends and fellow pioneers, Henry Smith William Taylor, J. C Caplinger, H N V Holmes William Miller and Reuben Gesner Hon J W Nesmith was also present and made remarks appropriate to the occasion of the burial of his old friend There at their final parting, after the lapse of so many years since their journeying to Oregon together, the living pioneer spoke as follows over the dead

Friends—We are assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to our neighbor and friend, Daniel Waldo He breathed his last on Monday morning and we now consign the remains of the good man to his last long home

Mr Waldo was born in Harrison county Virginia the 22d of March, 1800 and was 80 years of age at the time of his death He settled in Missouri in 1819 and there thirty eight years ago this month I made his acquaintance At that time there were four brothers of the Waldos all men of marked character and great energy The Waldos opened up and developed the great trade across the Staked Plains between the frontier of Missouri and the American settlements of Santa Fe and Chihuahua Joseph came to Oregon and returning east died in 1871 William went to California at an early day and upon the admission of the state into the union was the whig candidate for governor He is the only survivor of the four brothers

In 1843 Uncle Dan Waldo—as our deceased friend was affectionately and familiarly called by all who knew him—came to Oregon with his family and settled in the hills in this county which bear his honored name I crossed the plains with him and for nearly half a century have been honored by his friendship

The last time I saw him alive after speaking of our long and intimate acquaintance he told me that he should die soon and requested me to speak a last kind word at his grave I could not refuse such a request, but would have preferred that he had selected another more capable of doing justice to his merits No poor words that I can speak will add to the respect due to his virtuous and blameless life His best eulogy is to be found in the exemplary purity of his long life and ... character

Mr Waldo possessed a remarkably vigorous mind and he was well read in history ... and ... of ... Cervantes ... Don Quixote by heart They were ... a practical mind ... with ... pretenses ... bugs

He was modest and retiring in his nature never seeking public positions In 18.. his neighbors ... sent him to the legislature of the provisional government and he was subsequently county judge which ... he discharged with honor and fidelity

I do not believe he ever uttered a falsehood in his ... incapable of ... dress were characterized by ... simplicity ... best qualities of human nature ... days he ... to the weary ... travelers ... from ... the door

Our friend died ... disease ... must have been a burden to him ... ed to impatience or repining

Having walked for years in the valley and shadow of death he had no dread of the ... terrors ... well spent ...

His familiar form has departed from among us ... friends that loved and respected him for his worth To the mourning family we ... sympathy

And here at last ... our friend ... farewell ... Uncle Dan ... we who survive will cherish your memory in our hearts May the tomb that marks the spot where you sleep be of spotless marble for it cannot be whiter or purer than your blameless life

Gen. Garfield at the Cleveland Fair—His Views of Country Life.

(SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN)

Cleveland Sept 9—Gen Garfield was at ... the state fair to day and made a speech Alluding to the revelation of the census that cities are making marvelous progress while agricultural districts have comparatively small growth some even decreasing in population said that a careful study of the lives of great men will show that a most of them were born and bred in the country boys whose early life had been ... and ... strength and inspiration of forces of nature which play with freshness and freedom in the green fields of the country Gentlemen would you will agree ... the present tendency continued until the majority of our people are inhabitants of great cities If this tendency must prevail there is one way to mitigate its evils, and that is by bringing the city and country into closer bonds of sympathy and this brings me to the chief significance of this fair This great and growing city of the lake has opened her arms to the country and cordially invites the people who till in our fields dig in our mines and work in the country shops to come among you and bring with them the fruits of their land and products of their skill In return you show them the accumulation of city industry This interchange is beneficial to both, and let me add, especially advantageous to the residents of the city I am sure that the many leaders of the commerce and trade of Cleveland who were reared in the country are refreshed and invigorated by the reminder of their youth which this fair gives them They remember "the rock from which they were hewn." The soil on which they grew and are better and stronger for the remembrances In this fair the city and the country shake hands in renewed friendship and recognize anew their dependence upon each other

SATURDAY MORNING SEPT 11 1880

ANOTHER FALSE PRETENSE

The democratic platform congratulates the country on a reduction of forty millions in the general appropriations brought about by the economy of a democratic congress. This is a pretense which, like so many others in party platforms, will not bear examination. Wise men do not look to platforms for a guide by which to judge parties so much as they look to the general history of party policy and the tendencies of party action. The amounts appropriated by congress for the general and special expenses of the government may be ascertained with certainty by reference to the record. For the last nine years these amounts, as officially reported by the treasury, have been as follows. We give the statement for the sake of convenience in round numbers, adding the remark that in each case the amount is computed with utmost exactness for the fiscal year ending 30th June

1873	$134,000,000
1874	153,000,000
1875	137,000,000
1876	149,000,000
1877	116,000,000
1878	86,000,000
1879	171,000,000
1880	162,000,000
1881	154,000,000

The above list extends back far enough to include three years when the republicans had a majority in both branches of congress. For these years—1873 4 5—the average annual appropriation was $141,500,000. Against this set off the appropriations for the last three years—1879 1880 1—when the democrats have controlled the same and we find the annual average $162,300,000. Instead of showing a reduction, as so audaciously claimed, it shows an annual increase of $21,000,000. In the above schedule from the treasury department it will be seen that for the year 1878 the appropriations were exceptionally low—only $86,000,000. This is accounted for by the democrats refusing that year to make any appropriation for the army and other purposes. It was no economy, but only a dishonest refusal to pay an honest debt then due. Even if we include 1878 with the last three years and strike an average it is still higher by two millions than during the last three years of republican control of congress. During those years of republican control the sum of five millions was appropriated for coast and harbor defenses. During the last three years of democratic control there has been little more than one million expended for the same purpose. The republicans thought that as long as we had little or no navy our seaports should at least have some defences to keep off an enemy, till we had time to create one. Even in the economy attempted the democrats have shown the most reckless extravagance. But as to the whole of their claim of having reduced the expenses of the government forty millions, or a single million, it is an utter falsehood.

PENSIONS.

The subject of pensions is hardly surpassed in importance by any other public question whatever. It is not so much, perhaps, on account of the amount involved as in the number of persons interested that its importance lies, for the persons are all of a class who most fully and justly deserve the favor of the country. On the 30th June last there were 245,000 pensioners. During the fiscal year ending at that date, the amount paid out in pensions upon the regular roll was $30,000,000, and $21,000,000 additional for arrears of pensions under the new act. The whole number of persons directly interested in pensions, either as actual recipients or claimants, is 532,000. New claims continue to be filed at the average rate of 150 a day. From this time forward it will require $56,000,000 a year to pay the regular annually accruing pensions. This sum is sufficient to pay the interest upon fourteen hundred millions dollars of four per cent bonds. And to this sum the $308,000,000 arrears or first payments upon the pending claims, and we find the enormous amount of seventeen hundred and eight million dollars standing as the capital or representative of the pension interest as it was on the 30th June last, a sum nearly equal to the whole public debt of the nation.

Of course it is impossible to keep fraudulent claims out of so vast an interest. The commissioner of pensions recently made a statement in regard to discovered frauds, showing that during a little more than three years, beginning July 1 1876, 500 fraudulent pensioners were discovered and their names dropped from the rolls. In order to prove their claims they had filed 4397 affidavits. Of these 3084 were utterly false, and of the false affidavits 386 were made by officers belonging to the commands of the soldiers who made the claims. There were also 92 forgeries committed. Before these fraudulent cases were discovered the government had paid upon them $527,936 13. When it is remembered that the commissioner is not authorized to search among the pensioners for fraudulent claims, but must wait until some circumstance throws suspicion upon them, it will readily be seen that these are not all, nor more than a very small percentage, of the fraudulent pensions.

INCONGRUOUS FELLOWSHIP

That Hon J W Nesmith is a patriotic man his record in the senate during the rebellion fully attests. But on account of this record he has been out of favor ever since with his party in Oregon. He is now speaking for General Hancock as he supposes, but really he is speaking for the party which was so unpatriotic that he was unable to associate with it during the war. If the democratic party is successful in November it is the south that is successful, and when southern schemes again come to the front, as they surely will, then Mr Nesmith will be obliged to co-operate again with the republican party to check and defeat them. That he will do so we have no doubt; but it would seem that obsta principiis would be the better motto for men like him—that is to say, the better course for them to pursue would be for them to oppose steadily and throughout the policy of a party whose tendency is so full of danger. Not only upon southern issues but also on vital questions of financial policy has Mr Nesmith been obliged to resist the mad schemes of the democratic party, and we must do him the credit to say that he has never failed on proper occasions to lift up the voice of denunciation and warning. It may be worth while for men like Mr Nesmith to consider whether it would not be the safer way ... not giving up their independent position to bring their general influence to bear more constantly against the party whose dangerous schemes they so well understand and feel obliged so often to denounce. Mr Nesmith is a representative of a class of so called democrats who on all leading questions ... the last twenty years have been ... the republican ... the democratic party. At the same time their position has been such usually as to afford moral and material support to the democratic as against the republican party. Yet there has been hardly a leading question upon which they have been able to regard the democratic positions as sound and safe for twenty years past. Hence ... democratic party ... are regarded with marked ... and Mr Nesmith himself ... published in this paper ... in a way which showed that ... fact ... Nesmith ... no means more in occupying the position we have described. There are many others who with him hold what seems to be an anomalous position, assisting a party of whose dangerous tendencies they are fully aware and which profoundly distrusts them for the independence and courage they have evinced in opposing those dangerous tendencies and measures. The true place for such men is not in even professed fellowship with the democratic party.

AMENDED SCHOOL LAW

We print to day an outline of a bill drawn up by a number of persons of this city who are acquainted with the management of our city schools and their operation under existing laws, designed to effect important changes which it is believed will be in the public interest and add to the efficiency of the schools. The general objects to be attained by the proposed changes we can commend without hesitation, though there may be minor points which upon fuller consideration we might not entirely approve. One of the objects to be reached through the proposed change is the simplification of the revenue system for school purposes so as to avoid the trouble and expense of a complicated system and add to the convenience of the taxpayer by doing away with payment of this tax at a separate place and time as now and making it payable at the same time and place as the city taxes in general. Another now allowed by law to the school clerk object is to save to the taxpayers the large fees which make an aggregate far in excess of just compensation for the services required and are constantly increasing. Another object still is the addition of more members to the directory of the district, so that the labor which is continually growing more onerous may be subdivided and the efficiency of the directory increased. It is proposed that the mayor of the city shall be president of the board of directors, that the city superintendent shall be clerk of the board, that the city treasurer shall be treasurer of the school fund, and that the city auditor shall keep the accounts of the district and draw warrants for payments ordered by the board of directors. These are the principal changes which the law would effect. It will be observed that the provisions embodied in the proposed bill would apply only to cities of ten thousand inhabitants, and that Portland therefore is now the only city in which the law would go into operation.

There is a sit ... that is invincible. So intensely literal is it that ridicule extravaganza, and every possible figure of speech, is wasted upon it. Some days ago THE OREGONIAN was deriding the claims of the organs as to "conversions" from one party to another, with which their columns habitually teem, and to illustrate it invented the case of Judge Dombey of the sixty fifth ward of Philadelphia, "—supposed to have been "converted" ... in the stock phraseology of such announcements that "Judge Dombey is a representative man, and his abandonment of the false gods of democracy (we were supposing him a republican "converted") will be a stunning blow to that effete organization not only in that city but in the entire state." Now comes the unmatchable stupidity of the Bourbon organ of Benton county, the Corvallis Blade, calling itself by that name we may suppose, because it is duller than anything else under the canopy of heaven, and taking the whole thing as a piece of sober earnestness, refutes it triumphantly by declaring that Philadelphia has not sixty five but only thirty one wards, and therefore that THE OREGONIAN has been imposed upon! And its exultation is immense. We don't know that there is any use trying to do this subject justice. Will not somebody at Corvallis get that Blade a grindstone?

It may do those of our democratic brethren whose reliance is the solid south, some good to read and reflect upon the remarks of the New York Herald, reported in our telegraphic columns to day. To short-sighted folly it may seem a remarkably smart thing to organize the solid south on a basis of despotic barbarism, so as to be entirely sure of its whole vote but then in that shape it presents itself as a national menace, and unites as a solid force against itself the still more powerful north. To all observers it is becoming every day more apparent that not a single democratic electoral vote is likely to be obtained in any northern state and the Herald is entirely right in attributing the growing solidity of the north to the passion ate and sectional solidity of the south. It is a natural result. When the north sees the south organize for aggression as heretofore, then the north will organize as heretofore to meet it.

General Weaver, the greenback candidate for the presidency, who was canvassing in Alabama prior to the recent election there, continues to express himself freely in regard to the frauds by which the mountainous democratic majority was worked up. In a recent interview he said, "I have no hesitation in saying that there is no prospect whatever for a fair count and an honest election in Alabama without the intervention of federal supervisors at the polls. The democrats down here make no secret of the fact that they counted out the votes in opposition to their candidates. Both before and after election they made an open boast of doing this, and thus reported a majority which cannot be explained in any other way."

The "personal organ" again has something to say about a matter we noticed a day or two ago. Once for all, let us say this. Mr Scott does not deny the sworn statement of Mr Cole. He simply says that Mr Cole never made any such statement in reference to him either under oath or otherwise as that asserted by the organ and to substantiate this denial he is authorized to use the authority and name of Mr Cole himself. Having made this statement and established it by the authority falsely given for the original assertion Mr Scott does not feel himself called on at present to notice further the fabrications of a pair of very impertinent, malicious and contemptible liars.

The census is said to show that illiteracy is actually increasing in the south. In the north it continues to diminish. In view of the fact that the South complains of the heavy tax on whisky and tobacco as an unjust discrimination against her industries, it might be well to turn the revenue arising from these sources into a fund for the ... tion of the negroes and the ignorant whites.

Repudiation in Arkansas just at this time is not likely to commend the methods of the solid south to further favor in the northern states. Such action by the Southern states will cause a good many who are interested in protection of the national debt to stop and consider whether the national debt can be safely entrusted to the hands of repudiators.

The vote of Vermont shows the following results: Farnsbanks republican 45,205 ... majority ... 909. In September ... majority was ... and in September ... it was 25,323.

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The report of the growth of Dr Lindsley's church (First Presbyterian) of this city, recently published has drawn from the New York Evangelist the following comment

It is thus quite evident that the First church in Portland is a power for good in the growing Pacific northwest No church connected with the general assembly is more clearly at the lead in its special field and not one of all the five thousand is filling its grand peculiar mission with more diligence and effect And here we can but add that our churches should not be afraid of a certain amount of individuality in their work No two fields are just alike and each church as best it may should seek to adapt its activities to special needs and conditions Only thus will the work be well accomplished and each prove an ensample and inciting force to its neighbor and increase the common wealth of good which is the glory of the whole body

But it requires genuine consecration and self denial a habitual forgetting of the things already accomplished, however creditable and a pressing on to those before to achieve success upon success The danger always present to a successful church is that it will pause in its onward career of beneficence and thus as when a healthful stream of water is checked and becomes sluggish a thousand untoward things begin to appear at the surface We would predict no such results in the case of this model first church of Portland But let it continue as a clear and steady light, to shine into the wilderness round about and upon the islands of the Pacific and we at the east will continually take knowledge of its grand work and example We congratulate Dr Lindsley and his faithful session and helpers on the past, and the grand and enticing work still ready to their hands

OFFICE OF THE
PACIFIC MUTUAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
OF CALIFORNIA.

SACRAMENTO, July 1st 1880.

To all Desirous of Securing the Benefits of Life Insurance:

The first consideration with applicants for life insurance is, or at least should be, SAFETY Will the Money Paid out for the Policy be Prudently Invested? Are the Affairs of the Company Honestly and Efficiently Administered? When the Policy Becomes a Claim, will it be Promptly Paid, and thus the object which induced the payment of the premiums be fully attained? These are queries usually suggested, and the character of the answers determines the course of the questioner and the selection of his Company

In this connection, the Managers of the PACIFIC MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY respectfully beg leave to submit the following facts and statements concerning their Company

1 Since its organization A D 1868 it has paid 353 death losses, on policies amounting in the aggregate to $902 973

2 It has Paid to Policy Holders, for Matured Endowments, Dividends, and Surrender Values, in Round Numbers, $1,000,000.

3 Its losses have been paid Promptly and without Litigation. No judgment arising from a Policy claim has ever been rendered against it and it has no suits of this character pending

4 It has repeatedly been examined by Sworn Experts, and most thorough and searching investigations made of its condition and business and IN EVERY CASE its Solvency and Trustworthiness have been Demonstrated

5 Its stockholders and Directors are widely known as among the most capable business men and ablest financiers of the State of California and the integrity of their management is unquestioned

6 The laws of the State including the constitutional provisions affecting corporations are of the most rigid character such as to make the Company one of the safest institutions of its kind

Section 3 of Article XII of the NEW CONSTITUTION of the State of California is as follows

SEC 3. Each stockholder of a corporation or joint stock association shall be individually and personally liable for such proportion of all its debts and liabilities contracted or incurred during the time he was a stockholder as the amount of stock or shares owned by him bears to the whole of the subscribed capital stock or shares of the corporation or association The Directors or Trustees of corporations and joint stock associations shall be jointly and severally liable to the creditors and stockholders for all moneys embezzled or misappropriated by the officers of such corporation or joint stock association during the term of office of such Director or Trustee

Its policy contracts contain no restrictions upon residence or travel and its forms of insurance are unusually attractive The Low Rate, Deposit Endowment and Mutual Income Policies are peculiar to this Company and offer advantages to the insured which are not surpassed if equaled by those of any other Company

8 When desired Policies can be registered by the Insurance Commissioner of California on the payment of a moderate fee and a policy holder in the PACIFIC MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY of California has thus the absolute guarantee of the State of California that the money held by this Company against the contingency of his death is secured by bonds and mortgages deposited in the State Treasury With December 31st 1879 the Company closed its eleventh year, and in so doing affords the only instance on record in which a life insurance company in the eleventh year of its existence was enabled to pay its death losses from interest receipts not only was this done but in addition thereto a considerable surplus remained

Believing ourselves entitled to the confidence and business of such as propose effecting insurance upon their lives we solicit the patronage and pledge ourselves to discharge to the best of our ability the important and sacred trust devolved upon us

THE WELL'S SECRET

BY JOHN BOYLE O'REILLY

knew it all my boyhood in a lonesome valley meadow
Like a dryad s mirror hidden by the wood s dim arches near
Its eyes flashed back the sunshine, and grew dark and sad with shadow
And I oved its truthful depths where every pebble lay so clear

I scooped my hand and drank it and watched the sensate quiver
Of the rippling rings of silver as the drops of crystal fell
I pressed the richer grasses from its little trickling river,
Till at last I knew as friends know every secret of the well

But one day I stood beside it on a sudden, unexpected
When the sun had crossed the valley and a shadow hid the place
And I looked in the dark water—saw my pallid cheek reflected—
And beside it looking upward met an evil reptile face

Looking upward furtive startled at the silent swift intrusion
Then it darted toward the grasses and I saw not where it fled
But I knew its eyes were on me, and the old time sweet illusion
Of the pure and perfect symbol I had cherished there was dead

Oh the pain to know the perjury of seeming truth that blesses
My soul was created like sin to see the falsehood of the place
And the innocence that mocked me while in dim unseen recesses
There were lurking fouler secrets than the far Live reptile face

And since the ... —when the joyous ...
With eyes of limpid innocence, and words devoid of art,
I cannot trust their seeming but must ask what eyes would meet me
Could I look in sudden silence at the secrets of the heart!

RENOUNCING THE BOURBON FAITH.

Prominent Indiana Democrats Declaring for Garfield and Arthur

CINCINNATI, Aug 24 —The southern Indiana republicans are much encouraged by prominent converts made from the democracy in New Albany Recently, the Hon W C Depauw, proprietor of the Depauw American Plate-Glass Works in that city, and his sons, Newland T. and Charles Depauw, all heretofore strong democrats have openly declared for Garfield and Arthur and Porter and the state republican ticket. At the Depauw American Plate-Glass Works a Garfield Club, to be composed of 75 ex democrats, is being organized, of which George T Penn will be president, and Mr Charles Depauw secretary Penn was lately a democratic councilman Three sons of the late Hon. John S Davis, judge of the circuit court and a noted democratic politician, have declared for Garfield and Arthur and also for Porter. Mr. David G Hudson, heretofore an earnest democrat and enterprising business man, declares for Garfield and Porter Dr. Elijah Newland, formerly democratic treasurer of state for Indiana, and a life-long democrat, is out for Porter and the republican state ticket, as well as for Garfield The feeling against Landers among the democrats in this section is bitter The New Albany Ledger Standard, a democratic daily in the southern part of the state continues to do all it can to insure his defeat.

LOUISVILLE, Aug 27 —It is announced that W C Depauw, of New Albany, Indiana will not support Landers the democratic candidate for governor Mr Depauw, next to Mr English, is the richest man in Indiana. The reason he has renounced the democracy is his fear of the inability of the party to conduct safely the affairs of the government. New Albany is in Clark county, which has heretofore been democratic. The Ledger Standard, a democratic newspaper, refuses to support Landers, whom it denounces daily. Others have signified their intention to "scratch" him The New Albany republicans are as busy as beavers and hope for a considerable change. The democrats have a heavy load to carry in Landers, but there is no doubt that English will run stronger than he, and it is not prudent or healthy to think otherwise. It is reported by a gentleman who is known to be in his confidence that not a day goes by that he fails to work 15 hours Money is up now and more will follow Kentucky voters know this. [This means that the old plan of colonizing residents of Kentucky in the border counties of Indiana will be carried into effect as heavily this year as it was in 1877 and 1876]

On the 4th inst John Robinson and J. H. Stallcop started in the morning for the Kalama river When about four miles from the north fork and about north of the Calothers' ranch on the mountains they descended into a creek bottom Mr Robinson was in advance about 60 yards, when he heard M Stallcop call to him twice, asking if he (Robinson) was on the bottom Robinson answered yes when almost immediately he heard the report of a gun. Thinking that Mr Stallcop had shot at some game, he waited about ten minutes for him to come up, but not appearing, Mr Robinson started back on the trail to ascertain the cause of Stallcop s detention when, to his surprise and horror at a distance of about 60 yards back on the trail he found him lying on his back, out of the trail and about three feet back from it, his gun grasped in his left hand and lying across the lower part of his body, and the left side and back of his head completely blown away Mr Stallcop's gun was a double barreled shotgun, loaded with buck shot only one barrel was discharged—the left hand barrel A thick growth of young trees and underbrush intervened between the two men and in consequence Robinson had no chance to see Stallcop at the time, and therefore can not say whether his death was the result of deliberation or accident

The Grain Crop in the Northwest.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

CHICAGO, Sep. 10 —The Commercial Bulletin presents returns from 210 counties in the northwest as to the condition and amount of the spring wheat crop It seems evident that the culture of winter wheat is coming into greater favor in the northwest, especially in the older agricultural districts. The farmers appear also to have enlarged their corn area at the expense of spring wheat. The yield of the latter is, however, greater than in 1879 The old crop is said very close, much closer than usual. The total yield in the states of Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota Nebraska Kansas, Wisconsin and Dakota territory reckoned on the basis of returns received, is 147,731 000 bushels of spring wheat against 126,466 000 last year and the average per acre is 13.58 as against 12 15 per cent in 1879 The acreage is 481,900 greater than in 1879

Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—The wool market is quiet most manufacturers being well stocked California ranges from 26 to 37c for spring, but there are no important sales to report

THE TIDY HOUSEWIFE.

The careful, tidy housewife when she is giving her house its spring cleaning should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than houses and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma and she should know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly and sure as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of all medicines See other column.

Though Shaking Like an Aspen Leaf

With the chills and fever the victim of malaria may still recover by using this celebrated specific which not only breaks up the most aggravated attacks, but prevents their recurrence. It is infinitely preferable to quinine, not only because it does the business far more thoroughly but also on account of its perfect wholesomeness and invigorating action upon the entire system

45 Years Before the Public

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs increases on pressure, sometimes the pain is in the left side the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, the bowels in general are costive sometimes alternative with lax the head is troubled with pain accompanied with a dull heavy sensation in the back part There is generally a considerable loss of memory accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant The patient complains of weariness and debility he is easily startled his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin, his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged

AGUE AND FEVER

DR C McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine are productive of the most happy results No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them A FAIR TRIAL

For all bilious derangements and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

The genuine are never sugar coated

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C McLANE and FLEMING BROS on the wrappers

Insist upon having the genuine DR C McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros of Pittsburgh Pa the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation
